

PRACTICAL POINTS

Travel Directions: These will be supplied when you have booked your place. The Campus is conveniently reached by M2/A2 motorway from either London City & Gatwick Airports, Ashford International Rail Station, Dover or Folkestone Ports.

Arrival and Registration: The University cannot accommodate early arrivals. Please do not arrive before 3.00 pm on Monday 10 April '06. On arrival collect your room key, your name badge from the Office and Conference Registration Desk.

Parking: Ample parking is available, but you will need to collect a permit from our registration desk for display on the inside of your car windscreen.

On Campus transport will be provided as needed for elderly, infirm, disabled, etc. PLEASE ASK FOR THIS SERVICE.

Accommodation: If you would like to take advantage of the accommodation at the Campus you should register as soon as possible. A few rooms offer twin beds, mostly they are single rooms. (No specific 'family rooms' are available, a young child may be accommodated in their parents' twin room – if they have a travel cot). It is essential that you occupy the room allocated to you and that you do not sleep elsewhere on the campus. Rooms must be vacated by 9.00am on day of departure.

The provision of rooms in the University includes bed and breakfast. Tea / coffee making facilities are in every room. Bed-linen & towels are provided.

Please make sure that your booking for accommodation and/or meals is firm. Early departures and late cancellations or changes to arrangements will cost us non-refundable deposits and fees. Please ensure, as far as you are able, that you keep your booking. We suggest you make a copy of your booking form to help you remember!

Children are welcome but must be under control at all times: especially near the University offices and in the shared dining areas. Under 18's must be accompanied by a known, responsible adult. A crèche for under-11s is planned. Mothers are asked to take turns in the care of their children.

Security: Be vigilant, watch out for thieves! Leave nothing of value unattended. When on Campus please wear your conference identity name badge!

Costs: No charge is made, but the cost of the conference is about £100.00 per head – this includes accommodation, meals, overheads, etc. Lack of funds should not prevent attendance by any sincerely exercised to come. We trust the Lord will supply resources to help those who cannot afford to come and to meet all the expenses. Gifts may be made by cheque or credit card to Chapter Two. UK donors may do so under the Gift Aid Scheme.

Bookstall will be open from Tuesday evening to Friday afternoon.

THE VENUE

The forthcoming conference is again to be held on the campus of the University of Kent. The modern and comfortable buildings are situated on a wooded hill overlooking the historic city of Canterbury. The location is particularly convenient for those coming from the continent or London by train or car. Visit the website: www.biblecentre.org for more information about the conference and ways to get there. We have a special arrangement with a travel agent that could save you money.

OPEN AIR GOSPEL PREACHING

We plan, health permitting, to engage in Gospel testimony in Canterbury city. Details will be announced at the conference. Help with preaching will be appreciated. Our plan is to do gospel outreach Tuesday and Wednesday from 1.45 to 2.15pm. This should allow us enough time to return for the afternoon session at 2.45. We will supply suitable tracts for distribution. Please follow our instructions for this activity.

HYMN SINGING

The music/words edition of the Spiritual Songs (1978) hymnbook will be used. A small number of loan copies will be available – which we would like returned. Please buy your own from the bookstall and write your name in it! For the gospel outreach we will supply you with evangelistic hymn sheets or books. Musical Instruments may be used in the communal hymn-singing in the evenings.

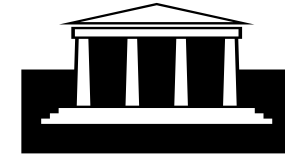

TESTIMONY

Smoking and the consumption of alcohol on or near the Campus by conference attendees is unacceptable and will harm our Christian testimony. Please bear in mind that your conduct will reflect on the opinion the world has of Christians.

BOOKSTALL

A substantial Bookstall of Christian literature and materials is provided by the Chapter Two Trust. Chapter Two can post your purchases back home for a little extra. Website: www.chaptertwobooks.org.uk.
