

PRACTICAL MATTERS

Arrival and Registration: The University cannot accommodate early arrivals. Please do not arrive before 3.00 pm on Tuesday 22 April. On arrival go to the college where you will be staying to collect your room key (and car-parking permit) – your confirmation booking will tell where this is. Then collect your name badge from the conference registration desk at the entrance in Eliot College.

Travel Directions: These will be supplied when you have booked your place. The Campus is conveniently reached by M2 motorway from either London, Gatwick, Ashford, Dover or Folkestone.

Parking: Ample parking is available, but you will need to collect a permit from our registration desk for display on the inside of your car windscreen.

Accommodation: If you would like to take advantage of the accommodation at the Campus you should register before 1 March 2003. Your registration confirmation letter will advise you of details. The rooms are either twin beds or single rooms. (No family rooms are available, a young child may be accommodated in their parents' twin room – if they have a travel cot). If you have asked us to book this accommodation and do not receive confirmation by 1 April 2003 please contact us promptly.

The provision of rooms in the University includes bed and breakfast. Tea and coffee making facilities are in every room. Bed-linen & towels are provided.

Please make sure that your booking for accommodation and/or meals is firm. Early departures and late cancellations or changes to arrangements will cost us non-refundable deposits and fees. Meals not taken, but booked, would be wasted.

Please ensure, as far as you are able, that you keep your word. We suggest you make a copy of your booking form to help you remember!

Children are welcome but must be under control at all times, especially near the University offices. Under 18's must be accompanied by a known, responsible adult. A crèche for under-11s is currently being planned. Mothers are asked to take turns in the care of their children.

Security: Be vigilant, watch out for thieves! Leave nothing of value unattended. When on Campus please wear your conference identity badge!

Costs: No charge is made, but the cost of the conference is about £100.00 per head. Lack of funds should not prevent attendance by any sincerely exercised to come. We trust the Lord will enable individuals and assemblies to make contributions to help those who cannot afford to come and to meet all the expenses. Gifts may be made by cheque or credit card.

Bookstall: Open Tuesday evening to Friday afternoon.
